

CLOSE

BEHIND THE MURDERERS ARE THE OFFICERS.

IDENTIFICATION OF THE MEN IS POSITIVE.

THE DEVELOPMENTS OF THE DAY

Walter Dorman Who Turned State's Evidence Had a Narrow Escape When Prisoners Left.

Butler, Penn., Jan. 31.—(Bulletin.) It is this afternoon reported that John and Ed Biddle and Mrs. Soffel are under arrest at Cooperstown, Pa. It is alleged they were caught in a sleigh from which the woman was taken half dead with cold.

Butler, Penn., Jan. 31.—(Bulletin.) It is now known that the Biddles and Mrs. Soffel were not arrested but that the officers are not more than a half hour behind the fugitives. They are positive as to the identification of the escaping murderers.

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 31.—Over 24 hours have elapsed since the sensational jail delivery from the Allegheny county prison. Not one clue or satisfactory word has yet come into the possession of the officials as to the probable whereabouts of either Ed. or Jack Biddle, or of Mrs. Soffel, wife of Jail Warden Peter K. Soffel, who materially aided the brother murderers in their arrangements for escape from the prison and who disappeared simultaneously with them. Mr. Soffel, who has been suspended from his office of Warden by the County Prison Board until the inquiry has been finished, stated this morning that he has heard nothing from his wife. Deputy Warden James Marshall is temporarily in full charge of the county prison.

Diligent inquiry has been made among the many friends of the Soffel family seeking information concerning the missing woman, but nothing giving light on her actions was learned. A sister of Mrs. Soffel, Mrs. Jacob Miller, is nearly prostrated with grief. She is confident that her sister is entirely innocent of wrongdoing and advances the theory that the escaped prisoners first murdered her sister, secreted her body, and then escaped. The detective and police forces of city and county have been incited to eagerness to catch the fugitives and no possibility of finding them is being overlooked.

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 31.—That Walter Dorman, who turned states evidence, is still alive is probably due to the fact that the Biddles could not find his cell. The guards say the escaping murderers called in a frenzy for Dorman hoping for him to answer, so they could fix him forever. Dorman, though had heard the struggle and saw, or knew, what was up, and kept silent. That silence and discretion saved him. Prisoners relate that the brothers dashed from one point to another peering into cell gratings, but had to give up as time was precious. There is absolutely no trace of the Biddles or the woman this morning. They may be near the city hiding, or hundreds of miles away. No one knows.

Mrs. Soffel, who gave the fugitives her husband's revolver and was cunning enough to stand before the cell doors while the boys sawed at the bars Wednesday afternoon was probably bold enough to get money for them, or perhaps prepare a hiding place.

Warden Soffel is temporarily under suspension.

A dispatch from Milwaukee says Jennie Seeber's mother thinks the girl helped in the escape and was near Pittsburg. The mother is coming east to investigate. There is a flaw in the theory, however, for Jennie was Dorman's friend and doubtless helped induce him to confess. The Biddles hate her now and would kill her on sight. Jessie Bodine, Ed Biddle's girl, is quarantined in a house at Tarry town with diphtheria.

The German Admiralty has placed orders with several French shipyards for small gunboats. These vessels, which are to be used for service exclusively in Chinese rivers, will be armed with mitrailleurs and quick firing guns.

SLOW

From a Game Cock's Spurs Finally Caused the Death of Mr. Hinely of Flint Hills.

Youngs town, O., Jan. 31.—E. M. Hinely of Flint Hills, is dead as the result of a battle with a chicken. Hinely was getting his chickens ready to ship to the Canfield Fair last fall. He attempted to place a game cock in a cage and it showed fight, striking him on one hand with its spurs. Two weeks later blood poisoning set in and he gradually grew worse until Thursday, when he died.

JUDGE EWING

Who Lectured in Newark on Christian Science, Falls Unconscious While Lecturing.

A Scripps, McRae Press association telegram to the Advocate received from New Orleans, La., this afternoon says:

"William J. Ewing, ex-Judge of the Supreme court of Cook county, Illinois, fell unconscious last night before a large audience while lecturing on Christian Science, a doctrine of which he is a warm advocate."

Judge Ewing is well known in Newark. Some time ago he delivered a lecture at the Auditorium here on Christian Science and while in Newark was entertained by North Third street friends.

MISS ROOSEVELT

MAY OR MAY NOT ATTEND KING EDWARD'S CORONATION.

It is Considered Bad Politics for the President if His Daughter Should Go.

Washington, Jan. 31.—The report that Miss Roosevelt will attend the coronation of King Edward VII. has created an unusual amount of gossip and some criticism that was wholly unexpected at the White House and by the close friends of the President and his family. The reason why Whitelaw Reid was chosen by the President as the Special Ambassador to King Edward's coronation is also receiving more attention than was at first given it.

The impression had gotten abroad that the President would appoint Andrew Carnegie as the special ambassador, but a Washington newspaper announced that Mr. Carnegie was not so much of a flunky as Whitelaw Reid, and that that was the reason for the choice.

But it is now believed that Reid's selection was due to a family understanding at the White House which was to the effect that the President's daughter was to accompany Mr. and Mrs. Reid to the coronation and be presented to the King.

And now comes a political commotion over the affair. The publication of the statement that Miss Roosevelt was to accompany the party of White law Reid, the special ambassador, has caused gossip that is taken seriously in high political circles. As a result some hurried conferences have been held by Republican leaders and some of them have given the President serious warning. Among these leaders is Senator Hanna who warned Roosevelt in pretty vigorous terms that his consent to his daughter's project of attending the coronation would be fatal in a political sense.

The matter is now said to stand in abeyance. It is given out that the President has not yet decided whether or he will give consent to his daughter's desire in the matter. But it is known that Miss Roosevelt has not yet abandoned the project.

CHILD

ADMITS SHE PUT POISON IN COFFEE

CAUSING DEATH OF ADOPTED MOTHER.

LITTLE GIRL WAS NOT ARRESTED

She Poured Rough on Rats in Coffee Pot, Because the "Boys Had Been Fussing."

Springfield, Ohio, Jan. 31.—Jonis Turner, 12 years old, made a signed confession last night that she put poison in a coffee boiler and caused the death of her adopted mother, Mrs. George Turner, and the critical illness of Mr. Turner and two children. In the confession she says:

"I did it because the boys had been fussing. I am sorry. I liked her very well, only sometimes when she whipped me I got mad. I could just reach the poison by standing tip-toe on the chair. My playmate told me she would give them poison. When they provoked me I just got it in my head."

The girl is an adopted child, being taken from Chillicothe when she was two years old. She had been taken in charge by Captain Nelson of the Salvation Army. Dr. Linn, of Wittenberg college, found the poison in the coffee.

A tea spoonful of rough on rats had been put into a coffee pot. She became frightened when she saw all drink of the coffee but did not tell of what she had done.

The child is not under arrest.

FOR YEARS

Houghton Was Sought and Finally Found in the Same County—A Fortune Awaits Him.

Toledo, O., Jan. 31.—Solon Houghton, whom R. K. Kelley, a land and claim attorney of Kansas City, Mo., has been trying to locate through Probate Judge Millard here, was finally found yesterday, living on a farm with his wife and two adopted daughters, near Holland, Ohio, 10 miles west of here. Parties have been searching for Houghton for years in order to place him in possession of lands located in Missouri of which he obtained possession during the Civil war. The land today is said to be worth hundreds of thousands of dollars owing to the fact that zinc and other minerals have been found on it.

Houghton has lived in this vicinity ever since the close of the war practically, and even his own relatives knew nothing of his whereabouts. He is a brother of the late Colonel Nat Houghton, who died here a few years ago, one of the best known men in Toledo.

The Houghtons were raised in Lucas county until the breaking out of the war, when the brothers, six in all, went to the front and lost track of one another. There is a regular colony of Houghtons here now, but they are all descendants from Colonel Nat, who was a leading manufacturer for years up to the time of his death. All will profit by Solon's good luck.

Of Dumont's Air Ship at Paris is Making Other Inventors Active.

Severo's Ship.

Paris, Jan. 31.—Since M. Santos Dumont's success in winning the Deutsch prize for a dirigible balloon, a number of flying contrivances have been brought to the public notice. Prominent among these is an airship which Senhor Augusto Severo is now building here. The ship, which is of his own invention, will cost some 1,600 pounds. Should the experiment prove a success, of which the inventor is confident, Senhor Severo will next May build another air ship 300 feet long with which he hopes to cross the Atlantic.

ELATED

OVER DEVELOPMENTS IN THE PATRICK TRIAL.

WILL OF 1900 IS DECLARED TO BE A FORGERY

BY WITNESSES ON THE STAND.

Patrick is Making a Strong Plea to go on the Witness Stand in His Own Behalf.

New York, Jan. 31.—The prosecution in the trial of Albert T. Patrick the lawyer, charged with killing Millionaire Rice was highly elated this morning over important testimony adduced yesterday, when Emmanuel Raphael, trustee, and secretary of the Rice Institute, declared that the charter of the institution forbids any trustee from receiving any money from the Rice estate. In the alleged forged will of 1900, the trustees are given $5000 each. Prosecutor Osborne declares that Rice knew of the prohibition but Patrick did not and that was where the defendant blundered. Raphael further stated that the institution had received about $1,500,000 from Rice during his life time. The will of 1900 bequeaths the institution $250,000 with the provision that it be returned to Patrick if the institution has already received that amount or more during the decedent's life.

Osborne declares this showed the defendant's lack of knowledge of Rice's affairs. Arthur B. Cohn, for many years a clerk for the murdered man has declared that the 1900 will and the Swenson checks were forgeries. He will be called to the stand today for cross examination.

It was said in court this morning that Patrick was making a strong plea with his counsel to go on the witness stand but his counsel are as yet unprepared to make any decision in the matter.

A FROSTY TIME

BETWEEN GERMAN EMPEROR AND PRINCE OF WALES.

Members of the English Royalty Don't Want the Kaiser at King Edward's Coronation.

Liverpool, Jan. 31.—The Post prints a letter which states that the Prince of Wales and the Kaiser had a frosty time during the former's recent visit to Germany. The Prince, the letter states, has never forgiven the Kaiser for once calling him a "sulky churl." The Kaiser, on the other hand, is offended at the Prince for plainly intimating to him that King Edward did not want the Kaiser to come to England for the coronation, because the German Emperor would detract attention from the Kaiser himself.

Since the Kaiser practically "kissed" Queen Victoria's funeral arrangements, the Post says, he has attracted the bulk of public attention and the members of the English royalty wish him to remain at a distance.

NASH

NAMES NEW TRUSTEES FOR DAYTON HOSPITAL.

NO ONE OF THE OLD BOARD IS REAPPOINTED.

NAMES OF THE MEMBERS GIVEN.

Old Members, It Is Said, Feel as if a Stigma Rests on Their Names in the Matter.

Columbus, O., Jan. 31.—Governor Nash late yesterday afternoon appointed as new members of the Board of Trustees of the Dayton State Hospital for the Insane Henry L. Morcy of Hamilton, ex-Congressman, for the term expiring in March of 1902; Clement R. Gilmore of Eaton, for the term expiring in 1903; George Little of Xenia, for the term expiring in 1904; Augustus N. Wilson of Greenville, for the term expiring in 1905, and T. F. Linn of Columbus, for the term expiring in 1906.

Linn and Gilmore are the Democratic members of the board. This promises to be the end of the scandal of the Dayton Hospital as far as the Governor is concerned. He wants the whisperings and mutterings hushed up now, and believes that with the appointment of this board to succeed the one so summarily decapitated that the trouble will be soon forgotten.

The men who are succeeded by the board named in the foregoing are former Lieutenant Governor W. C. Lyon, of Xenia, (formerly of Newark); William W. Roach of Bellefontaine; Thos. A. Burns of Versailles; Lunder D. Lesh of Eaton and Frank W. Whitaker of Hamilton. It will be remembered that the Governor demanded their resignations at the request of the State Board of Charities. This board made an investigation at Dayton, and found that unusually large expense accounts were allowed. The portion of the investigation suppressed referred to the conduct of one board member to female employees at the institution, and according to Steward Knowles of the institution, who laid bare the matter in the Governor's office here, W. C. Lyon was largely to blame for the trouble. It is argued here that the fact of Governor Nash making up the new board without reappointing any of the old members leaves every one of the decapitated Trustees with something of a stigma on his official career.

Politicians here seem to be sure that Steward Bob Knowles will be let out by the new board. There is not so much certainty about Superintendent Ratliff. While Dr. Loves and the Dayton Republican machine are after him, the members of the State Board of Charities are friendly to him, and it is surmised that they have considerable influence with the Governor.

PRICE

Of Sermons Fixed at a Fraction Over $1.23 by an Arbitration Committee—Railroad Case.

Norfolk, Va., Jan. 31.—The cash value of Baptist sermons in Virginia has been officially fixed at $1.23 and a fraction each. A board of arbitration comprised of Baptist clergymen has decided that the Norfolk & Western railroad company must pay the Rev. W. P. Hines, pastor of the Park View Baptist church at Portsmouth, $250 cash for 202 sermons lost by agents and employees of the company. Mr. Hines had valued the sermons at $350 each. Pastor Hines was a passenger on a Norfolk & Western train a few weeks ago and had his valise checked. When he presented the check for his valise at his destination it could not be found. The company refused to pay, so a process for the lost valise was started. The matter was settled by arbitration. Dr. Hines agreed the railway people selected the Rev. Dr. Lafferty, editor of the Richmond Christian Advocate, Dr. Hines selected the Rev. Dr. Owen of a local Baptist church, and these two ministers selected Rev. Dr. J. J. Hall, pastor of Park Avenue Baptist church at Norfolk.

Washington, Jan. 31.—Governor General Taft appeared before the Senate Philippines committee today. MILLER

Former City Clerk at Sandusky Will Put up Novel Plea in His Defense at Trial.

Sandusky, O., Jan. 31.—Facing charges of embezzlement from the city in an amount which Prosecutor Williams says will reach $75,000, A. W. Miller, former city clerk, who was recently brought back from Havana, Cuba, where he had been a fugitive for nearly a year, was placed on trial yesterday. He was dressed in the height of fashion, but said that he had no means to employ counsel, and the Court appointed an attorney. Relatives of Miller's wife, who live in Cincinnati, and are wealthy, refused to further assist him in his fight. He will attempt to clear himself on the ground that he had no authority to collect assessments.

BODY

OF BURGLAR HAS ARRIVED AT ATHENS, OHIO.

Marshal Finsterwald, Wounded Officer is Resting Fairly Well—Lysle's Body Unclaimed.

Athens, O., Jan. 31.—Dressed in a sombre suit of black and in a plain basket the horrible result of the encounter at Gallipolis between officers and burglars became apparent last evening when the body of one of the desperadoes, Harvey Williams, arrived in this city and was taken to an undertaking establishment.

Williams was an Athens county product, and was born and reared within three miles of this city. He had always lived here, and, though he had been arrested for minor offenses, this was the first serious crime placed against him. His body was taken possession of by his relatives.

His father is dead and he had been making his home with his stepfather, Samuel Lake, a farmer and for many years a mail carrier out of Athens. His mother was overcome by grief, but the stepfather, a brother and a sister viewed the remains at the undertaking establishment. The remains were buried today.

John Lamborn, the photographer, who was arrested as an accomplice, says he knew nothing of the scheme to rob the Widow Priestley and use the money for the purchase of counterfeit bills. He made an attempt to secure bail, but when he was informed of the wrought-up condition of the citizens he concluded that it would be safer to remain in jail. He is the only occupant of the Athens jail.

Marshal Finsterwald the wounded officer, is resting fairly well.

Lysle's Body Unclaimed.

Gallipolis, O., Jan. 31.—The bodies of the two robbers who were killed here in that terrible battle lay at Undertaker Hayward's all day and were viewed by thousands of excited people. The coroner did not hold an inquest, and waited for some one to claim the bodies.

Brothers of Harvey Williams sent for the body, and Williams' body was sent to Athens. The body of Lysle is still here, and may be buried in public field or sent to a medical institution today, but is sore after the terrible strain and wounds he received, but is not thought to be seriously wounded.

A STRING

TO THE ISTHMIAN CANAL SOLUTION.

STORY OF SENATOR SPOONER'S BILL, WHICH IS

THE ADMINISTRATION MEASURE

To Pass Both Houses With Joining of Hands and an All Round Merry Dance.

Washington, Jan. 31.—According to the latest inside information a solution of the difficulty in choosing an Isthmian canal route which is satisfactory to all parties has been reached. In the statement of the terms of the compromise now at hand is strictly correct it is entirely safe to say that they will not prove satisfactory to all parties unless all parties are agreed upon the Nicaraguan route. The story is that just before the Senate adjourned Tuesday Senator Spooner introduced a bill which is understood to have the entire approval of the President and his cabinet and which it is believed will pass both houses with a joining of hands and a merry dance all around.

The bill is said to provide that the President shall purchase the rights of the Panama company, including the stock in the Panama railroad, for $40,000,000. That, of course, would be eminently satisfactory to Americans who prefer the Panama route. But there is a string.

The bill next provides that before making the purchase the President must satisfy himself as to three things: First, that the Panama company can give a clear title, free from "ordinary" legal and diplomatic drawbacks; second, that Colombia will grant a reasonable concession to the United States government for the work on the Panama canal can probably be completed at a cost of not more than $135,000,000.

The first and second of these conditions ought to be satisfactory to all Americans. We have bought enough of troubles to last us at least one generation. We ought not to buy more; no, not even in the Atlantic east of Porto Rico. The third of the conditions taken in connection with what the bill does not contain, so far as we have information, is the string, which ought to be entirely satisfactory to the partisans of the Nicaraguan route.

It will be likely to take a great deal to convince the president that it will not cost more than $135,000,000 to complete the Panama canal, even if he is wholly free from bias in favor of the Nicaraguan route. The last report of the Walker commission is not at all calculated to convince him of that and there are engineers in the employ of the commission who do not believe the work can be done for twice that sum and who may raise doubts in the presidential mind sufficient to warrant the rejection of that route under the provisions of the bill.

So far as appears there is no limitation as to the cost of the Nicaraguan canal. If the President is not "satisfied" that the Panama canal can be completed for $135,000,000 he must decide in favor of the other route, no matter how much the work may cost, and he must proceed with it at once, the bill carrying an appropriation of $10,000,000 for immediate use. There is scarcely a dispute that the Nicaragua will cost many millions more, both to construct and to operate.

Judging from the synopsis at hand, therefore, it is not too much to say that the bill in effect selects the Nicaragua route and gives the other no choice whatever. This bill, it is told, is to be regarded as an administration measure, because Senator Spooner "has come to be recognized as the mouthpiece of the administration on all matters involving delicate legal and constitutional questions."

The main question involved in this bill seems to be the old and rather delicate one of heads I win, tails you lose. It is not unlikely that some senators and even some representatives who are of the opinion of the commission that the Panama route is decidedly the best will not instantly acquiesce in Mr. Spooner's delicate solution.

SENATOR LODGE'S "STRENUOUS" ACT.

The account of last Tuesday's debate and athletics in the Senate possesses points of thrilling interest. Lodge of Massachusetts, the peculiar senatorial friend of President Roosevelt, made himself conspicuous as the best ruffian who has appeared in that body since the days when the senators representing slavery cracked their whips.

The debate was on the subject of the Philippine policy of the administration. Senator Lodge permitted himself to become angry at some remarks by Senator Teller, and Mr. Teller had a washbasin. Mr. Lodge was in his seat back of that occupied by Senator Hoar, his venerable colleague.

In his excitement Lodge sprang to his feet, clambered over a couple of desks and jumped across the legs of Senator Hoar, which were extended across the aisle, in order to reach Senator Teller's immediate vicinity. It appeared as if he intended to make a personal assault on the aged Colorado senator. The exhibition is described as simply brutal and disgraceful.

During all this time the deportment of Senator Teller is described as admirable. He glanced over his steel-bowed spectacles at the furious Massachusetts senatorial athlete and said in a tone of calmness which Senator Lodge understood: "I am prepared and always capable of taking care of myself in matters of this kind. I will not be bullied by any senator or any set of senators."

There appeared to be an impression that a cabal of administration senators had been formed to intimidate the minority in opposition. Whether this was true or not, Senator Lodge gave sufficient proof that such might have been the fact. President Roosevelt should suppress his very offensive friends who attempt violence in the senate to defend his policies.

WHAT IS WELL "ENOUGH?"

It is generally understood that the do-nothing policy, so far as the tariff question is concerned, has been adopted as the plan of campaign for the coming season of congress, and that "let well enough alone" is to be the watchword and slogan. "Let well enough alone" is a good doctrine, but it invites the question: What is well enough? Is the Dingley tariff well enough? Is it well enough for the steel trust to hide behind the sheltering wall of a high tariff and sell goods to foreigners cheaper than the home trade can buy them?

GREAT BRITAIN NOT OUR PROTECTOR.

There is something pleasant in the way the other powers have promptly called the British bluff that Great Britain protected us from interference by the combined European powers during the Spanish war. The Russian foreign office promptly denies that Russia ever had any intention of going into any such a combination, or that any such proposition was formally submitted to her for acceptance.

France gives Russia more credit than Russia claims for herself, for the statement from official sources there is that while the matter was in an uncrystallized shape, and Great Britain as well as other countries, was hesitating on the proper course to follow, "Russia settled the matter by the late Count Mouraviev's blunt rejection of the proposal." France also denies any intent at any time to join in any combination to put pressure on the United States, although she preferred peace to war.

These statements leave Great Britain high and dry with her patronizing pretense of having rushed to our rescue and saved us from the combined opposition of the European powers.

It is very plain that Great Britain's purpose is to enlist our sympathy and secure our aid in her opposition to Russia in the Orient. Her policy for centuries has been to make catspaws of other nations to effect her own purposes.

poses, and her historians and statesmen openly avow this policy and boast of it as a commendable system. It may be a good thing for Great Britain, but it has brought a vast amount of trouble to her allies. The United States would be very silly to allow herself to be thus used after all this experience.

Russia has always been our friend, and stood by us in the civil war, when England was paying compliments to "King Cotton" and arming and equipping rebel cruisers to prey on our commerce. We owe nothing whatever to Great Britain, and anything in the nature of alliance with her in any of her "world" schemes will not fail to be costly to us while the benefit, if any, will go to her.

Director Philbrick had the great pleasure Thursday of entertaining the pastor of his boyhood days, Rev. Dr. Watson, who is now located at Reynoldsburg. The director was delighted with the visit and was pleased with the words of commendation which he received from his former pastor for the manner in which he is conducting the safety of the great city of Columbus.—Columbus Dispatch.

Waiter's Translation.

Senator Keen of New Jersey, who is something of an epicure, had an amusing experience the other day in a restaurant, says the Washington Post. He wanted some oysters, but he wanted them cooked in a certain way.

"Now," said he to the waiter, "I want you to listen carefully to what I am going to say. I want you to go to the chef and tell him to put a dozen oysters out on a napkin to dry. Then he is to take some cream, and when the cream has begun to boil he is to put the oysters in the liquid, letting them remain there until the edges of each oyster just begin to curl. Then I want the oysters taken out and served upon a napkin. Here is a dollar for you and a dollar for the chef to fix me those oysters just in the way I want them."

The waiter, who had been apparently listening very intently to the Senator's elaborate directions, took the money and walked back to the kitchen.

"One stew" was all he said, in a loud voice.

MYSTERY

Is Finally Explained—The Story Told of a Murder Committed Two Years Ago.

Hamilton, Jan. 31.—The mystery surrounding the murder of Ezekiah Stites, a resident of Oregon, Warren county, in February, 1900, promises to be cleared up by a story told by the police by the common-law wife of Robt. Harlan, a prisoner in the county jail awaiting trial for pocket-picking. Harlan, Nellie Herron of Middletown and Newton Upton, Bessie Berger and Vernon Lewis of Oregon, Warren county, have been arrested as the result of her confession. She says that Upton and Lewis killed Stites with clubs in the presence of the Berger girl, while Harlan and the Herron woman stood guard. They did the job to cover up their previous robbery of Stites in 1898. They robbed the corpse of $189.

DOW TAX

PROVISIONS OF NEW BILL IN OHIO HOUSE.

PUTS THE TAX AT FIVE HUNDRED A YEAR.

OTHER MEASURES ARE OFFERED

Supreme Judges' Salaries—State Depository Partisan Boards—State Legislature News.

Columbus, Jan. 31.—Representative Price introduced in the house a big bunch of bills, principal among which was the new Dow tax law. This provides that every dealer in intoxicating liquors must pay an annual tax of $500. This is an increase of $150 a year.

A bill was launched to increase the salaries of the judges of the supreme court from $5,000 to $7,000 per annum. Another is to give the commission appointed by the governor two years ago to point out the positions occupied in the battle of Vicksburg about $28,000 to complete their work. The state depository bill, about which much has been said for some time, was introduced by Representative Brecken, and various other changes in the statutes were offered. There were a large number of proposed measures reported back favorably by the standing committees, but none of them are of general state importance.

The state depository bill provides for a state depository commission, to be composed of the governor, auditor of state and attorney general, which shall advertise for bids for keeping the funds of the state. They shall be placed in not less than two nor more than five banks, and the funds shall go to the highest and best bidder. The contract shall be for a term of three years. The commission is allowed $500 per year for expenses. Security for the safe keeping of the funds shall be given in the sum of not less than $6,000,000 by each bank.

Following is an abstract of the bills introduced in the house: By Mr. Fraser of Lucas—To provide that all foreign and domestic insurance companies may loan money to the extent of 50 per cent of the value of real estate as improved. Devaul of Monroe—To repeal the Garfield corrupt practices act. Myers of Montgomery—To provide that any member of an incorporated company may file affidavit of dissolution. Earhart of Richland—Giving prison guards the right to ride on freight trains while in pursuit of convicts. Sharp of Fairfield—Regulating the sale of adulterated drugs. Brannock of Clermont—To compel mayors of small towns and township clerks to report all fires to state fire marshal and providing for fee for this service. Holladay of Clinton—To compel payment of subscription to newspapers or route carriers. Castle of Crawford—To regulate the type of engine to be used by steam roads—seeking the doing away with the "double cab" engine. Bell of Cuyahoga—To make defaulting officers of fraternal societies liable for embezzlement whether on salary or not.

Work of the Senate.

Senate bills introduced: Providing that persons committed to Mansfield reformatory shall be delivered there by the sheriffs of the county where the felony was committed; amending the law so that male criminals under the age of 30 years may be committed to the Mansfield reformatory; to authorize the employment of a Catholic chaplain at the penitentiary at a salary of $600 per year; to revise the Boxwell law; to appropriate $50,000 for improvements at Ohio university; regulating the manner of securing land by municipal corporation for gas or electric light plants; providing for non-partisan boards for state hospitals and industrial schools; increasing salary of the superintendent of the blind asylum; abolishing grade crossings in Cleveland.

Senate bill passed: By Mr. Longworth, authorizing the redemption by the Cincinnati sinking fund trustees, of $5,000,000 bonds.

Work of Taxation Committee.

Columbus, Jan. 31.—The taxation committee threw out, on the ground of its unconstitutionality, the bill providing that property purchased with pension money be exempt from taxation. It also recommended for indefinite postponement the consideration of the bill exempting parsonage property below the value of $2,500 from taxation on the ground that the Ohio statutes do not provide for any such uniformity or discrimination.

Town Burned.

Roanoke, Va., Jan. 31.—The little town of Ivanhoe, in Wythe county, was almost entirely destroyed by fire. The stores of J. W. Miller, E. H. Handies, J. C. Lawson, Pierce & Company, a new brick building just completed and intended for a bank, two grocery stores, the police office and several dwellings were burned. The building in which the postoffice was located was also used by Postmaster Jewett and family as a dwelling. The flames started in the store of J. W. Miller, but the origin of the money value of the loss has not yet been learned.

Cuban Sugar.

Havana, Jan. 31.—Governor General Wood had written to certain senators at Washington regarding the present situation of the sugar industry in Cuba, showing that it is impossible at the present prices to land sugar in the United States at a profit. With a 33 per cent reduction of the existing duties, General Wood says, Cuban planters will only net 48 cents per bag of 200 pounds.

JOINT

Conference of the Miners and the Operators to Adjust the Year's Wage Scale.

Indianapolis, Jan. 31.—Coal operators and miners are in joint conference in this city. The Pittsburgh delegation of operators has arrived, with Francis L. Robbins at its head. Mr. Robbins was unwilling to talk about the probable action of the convention, saying it is too early to make any predictions. From his discussion of the situation in the Pittsburgh district, however, it is evident that he, with the other Pittsburgh operators, is determined to oppose any demand for an advance on the part of the miners.

F. S. Brooks of Columbus, one of the Ohio Operators' association, does not believe the miners' demand for an increase can be acceded to by the operators. In regard to the plan of the miners to substitute the run-of-mine basis for screen basis, Mr. Brooks said: "That would merely be putting a premium on unskilled work. Under the present system great skill is required of the miners. If we changed to the run-of-mine basis the miners would not take as much care in their mining as they do at present. Big shots would be fired which would shatter the coal into fragments, and the operators would lose much by the careless work."

Philippine Campaign.

Manila, Jan. 31.—The general outlook for pacification in the archipelago everywhere outside of the island of Samar has never been more favorable than at the present time. The insurgents have been broken up into small bands and are everywhere fleeing for shelter. They surrender daily, are captured or are killed. The policy of reconcentration and the stern measure of closing the ports to commerce have accomplished everything expected of them. General Chaffee still hopes that by the end of February the island of Samar alone will remain not pacified. Those provinces bordering on the provinces of Batangas and Laguna, in southern Luzon, have been patrolled by the native constabulary, who have done excellent work.

Destructive Work of Sleet.

Little Rock, Jan. 31.—Telephone and telegraph lines are prostrated, railway traffic interrupted and business practically at a standstill as the result of the unprecedented sleet storm in many parts of Arkansas. News from Jonesboro, Pine Bluff and many other points indicate that the property damage is heavy. In Little Rock the losses to mercantile stocks and buildings will aggregate $500,000.—The damage was due to the storm of sleet, snow and rain. The sleet fell to a depth of about six inches and immediately packed into a solid mass of ice. The weight was too much for the roofs of both business houses and residences, and the roofs sagged.

Boy Found Dead.

Greensburg, Ind., Jan. 31.—The remains of Luther Logan, 14, son of Nathan Logan of near Clarksville, were found at the foot of a railroad trestle near Mt. Pleasant. The boy had left home presumably for a hunt. His death is a mystery. Whether hit by a train while crossing the trestle or murdered by tramps, remains to be proven.

Tommy Ryan Won.

Kansas City, Jan. 31.—Tommy Ryan of this city, who claims the middle-weight championship of the world, knocked out George Green of San Francisco in the seventh round of what was scheduled as a ten-round contest before a large audience in Armory hall. From the first round, in which Green was forced to take the count, until the decisive blow was landed, the result was never in doubt. Ryan was aggressor throughout and Greene was at no time able to withstand the furious rushes of his opponent.

Prince Henry Reading Up.

Berlin, Jan. 31.—Admiral Prince Henry of Prussia is maintaining unusual privacy at the Schloss and spending much of his time reading about the United States. He declines as many invitations as he can, his only engagement before his departure for Kiel being to attend the dinner in his honor to be given tonight by Count Von Buelow, the imperial chancellor. Prince Henry is using every opportunity to meet well-informed Americans and to talk with them concerning the United States.

To Avert Strikes.

Pittsburg, Jan. 31.—The Amalgamated association of Iron, Steel and Tin workers, has just taken a radical step that may have a wholesome effect on averting strikes. The organization has made an agreement with the American Steel Hoop company and the Republic Iron and Steel company that the mills of these concerns shall not be shut down next summer pending the wage adjustment. In other words, there is to be no strike, even if a disagreement on the wages results.

Cuban Sugar.

Havana, Jan. 31.—Governor General Wood had written to certain senators at Washington regarding the present situation of the sugar industry in Cuba, showing that it is impossible at the present prices to land sugar in the United States at a profit. With a 33 per cent reduction of the existing duties, General Wood says, Cuban planters will only net 48 cents per bag of 200 pounds.

BRONCHITIS

A Disease that is Dangerous.

Vinol's Great Value in Such Cases.

When we talk to a man who has bronchitis, it is unnecessary for us to enter at any length into symptoms.

Our experience has been that sufferers from this trouble become careless. After a time they believe it is a misery they must endure. That is not the case. Many of our friends who will read this will agree with us that it was a good thing for them when they followed our advice and took Vinol. It is indeed wonderful how quickly this modern scientific preparation completely overcomes this disagreeable and dangerous disease.

We wish more of our friends and citizens who suffer from bronchitis, or, in fact, from any throat or pulmonary trouble, would come to us. It would give us pleasure to devote our time in explaining how Vinol cures all such diseases; in fact, any disease that has a tendency to deplete the system. The following letter on this subject is surely of interest:

"For five years I was troubled with a terrible cough and bronchitis. I tried a great many different preparations without getting relief. I could not sleep and I became so weak I could hardly walk, and all this time I was coughing day and night. Then I took Vinol. What a God-send that first bottle was! I had not taken half of it before I noticed a change for the better. I took four bottles in all, and now the improvement in my condition is most encouraging. I no longer cough, and I feel stronger and better than I have for a long time. Miss ANNA RAY, Bangor, Me."

When you call on us, we will give you many other facts fully as interesting as the above. You will thus see why we have such faith in Vinol, and why we never hesitate to refund to anyone the cost of Vinol, if we fail to benefit them.

MINISTER

WAS FOUND AND THE KNOT WAS THEN TIED.

License Was in Young Man's Pocket. An Unusual Situation in a Toledo Hotel.

Toledo, O., Jan. 31.—A bashful, acting young couple wandered into the office of the Hotel Madison, and after standing about in a gawkish way for several minutes the young man stepped to the clerk's desk and as he did so he was handed a pen and requested to register if he desired to become a guest. He did so, signing his name as Walter Hoffman, Michigan. The clerk then inquired about the young woman and asked if she was his wife.

After some embarrassment of speech the young man answered in the affirmative and then "and wife" was inserted on the register following Hoffman's name. They were assigned a room and taken up in the elevator. In a few minutes the young man returned down stairs and declared to the clerk that the young woman was not really his wife, although he had the license in his coat pocket to marry her. The clerk then informed the young man that they would have to occupy separate rooms under the circumstances.

Landlord Field learned of the young couple's predicament and volunteered to help them out. He told the young man that he would have a clergyman for a guest and that he might tie the nuptial knot. The clergyman came, and in a few minutes the bridal party was gathered in the parlor, and in the presence of a number of prominent Toledoans, guests of the hotel, the marriage took place. The hotel regulations being complied with the young couple were conducted to their room.

Williams of Newark, that has been held this winter, was held last night, the occasion being the conferring of the E. A. degree on Brothers H. M. Jackson and Fred Buxton. At the conclusion of the work a short social session was held, and all who were present had a good time.

Thursday was the day set apart for prayer in the colleges, and it was fittingly observed in Denison. All the college exercises were suspended and religious services were held in the Chapel in the morning. Dr. Hunt, the new President, delivered an excellent sermon, which was attentively listened to by the students.

The recent fall of snow encouraged a number of the young swains of the village to bring out their cutters, but they soon discovered that it was "rough sledding" as the runners cut through onto the hard ground. Orndorf's horse was in the lead most of the time.

DEFEATED

Her Republican Lover at the Polls and Then Married Him—A Colorado Romance.

Denver, Colo., Jan. 31.—Miss Nellie Tully, after establishing her superiority by defeating S. D. Cunningham for the nomination for treasurer of San Juan county, showed her high regard for her late political opponent by marrying him. The ceremony was performed at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Rev. William Morrin, of St. Francis de Sales church, at the home of the bride's brother, Thomas Tully in this city.

Mr. Cunningham had been for six years treasurer of San Juan county, which until the last election was always strongly a Republican county. He was a candidate for renomination before the Republican Convention last fall. Miss Tully, however, whose brother is interested in politics, was persuaded to run on the Democratic ticket against her Republican sweetheart.

She made such a popular candidate that when the Republican Convention met it ignored Mr. Cunningham's claim and gallantly announced that it would offer no candidate against Miss Tully. Miss Tully's popularity secured not only her own election but that of the whole Democratic ticket in San Juan county. She is the first woman county treasurer in Colorado.

Geiger and Faulds.

A very pretty and unique home wedding occurred in the East End Thursday night at 7:30. The scene of the occasion was the new home recently built by the groom on Madison avenue. The contracting parties were two well known young people of East Newark. The groom, Mr. Wm. Geiger, is foreman of Mr. A. J. Baldwin's greenhouse. The bride is Miss Mary Faulds, daughter of Mrs. M. A. Faulds, of Madison avenue.

Promptly at 7:30 the bride and groom marched into the parlor and in the presence of the guests who included the relatives of both parties and a few special friends, the ceremony was performed by Rev. T. M. Higginbotham, pastor of the Plymouth Congregational church, which made them man and wife. The bride wore a pretty blue silk gown with point lace and carried a shower bouquet of Roman hyacinths. After the congratulations the guests sat down to an elegant supper served in courses. These young people begin life together in their new home with every promise of happiness and all their friends wish them abundant happiness.

FOR THE CHILDREN.

To Keep Their Digestion Perfect Nothing is so Safe and Pleasant as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Thousands of men and women have found Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets the safest and most reliable preparation for any form of stomach trouble.

Thousands of people who are not sick, but are well and wish to keep well take Stuart's Tablets after every meal to insure perfect digestion and avoid trouble.

But it is not generally known that

The Tablets are just as good and wholesome for little folks as for their elders.

Little children who are pale, thin and have no appetite, or do not grow or thrive, should use the tablets after eating and will derive great benefit from them.

Mrs. G. H. Crotley, 533 Washington St., Hoboken, New Jersey, writes: "Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets just fill the bill for children as well as for older folks. I've had the best luck with them. My three-year-old girl takes them readily as candy. I have only to say 'tablets' and she drops everything else and runs for them."

A Buffalo mother, a short time ago, who despaired of the life of her babe, was so delighted with the results from giving the child these tablets that she went before the notary public of Erie Co., N. Y., and made the following affidavit:

Gentlemen:—Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets were recommended to me for my two-months-old baby, which was sick and puny and the doctors said was suffering from indigestion. I took the child to the hospital, but there found no relief. A friend mentioned the Stuart Tablets and I procured a box from my druggist and used only the large sweet lozenges in the box and was delighted to find they were just the thing for my baby. I feel justified in saying that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets saved my child's life.

JAIL

BEING WATCHED BY DETECTIVES SAYS PINKERTON.

Who Fears There May be a Repetition of the Biddle Brothers' Escape.

In reference to the escape of the Biddle brothers, murderers, from the Pennsylvania prison yesterday, as fully related in an Advocate telegram from Pittsburg, William A. Pinkerton, said in Chicago last night: "I sometimes think that our American women ought to be ashamed of the increasing prevalence of their sex to indulge in hero worship over notorious criminals.

"In no other country in the world are murderers regarded with any feeling other than loathing and abhorrence.

"I believe that in time the public sentiment against sympathy for murderers, however handsome or intellectual, will be so pronounced that even the most emotional women will not dare to display any tender feelings for the male criminals of that type.

"I have in mind one case at the present time in regard to which it has been my constant fear for months past that women's astounding follies concerning him would aid in his escape. He is six times a murderer, yet he is every day dined and wined by his jailor's wife.

"To mention any names in this case would cause bitterness. Still, we are keeping an eye on that jail. It has cost thousands of dollars to bring the rascal under the shadow of the gallows.

"His fascinations for women have not been lost sight of and he and his women friends will have to be more than usually adroit if he succeeds in making his escape."

HEARING

OF WOMEN WHO WERE ARRESTED FOR SHOP LIFTING

Begins Before Mayor Atherton—Large Crowd Present—An Attempted Interview—Day's Developments.

The case against the three women Mrs. Laura Harris, Mrs. Rose White and Mrs. Ella Haughey, who are charged with shoplifting was called about 1:45 o'clock this afternoon before Mayor Herbert Atherton, in the city council chamber.

Long before the hour set every available seat was taken, and standing room was at a premium.

The three defendants were early on the scene and occupied seats together inside the railing, where they were the objects of every eye. The audience was a variegated one, including bankers, merchants, laborers, lawyers and the regular attendants at police court trials, where anything unusual or sensational is apt to be brought out in the testimony.

Before the case was called the three defendants spent their time in looking about the court room, at intervals exchanging whispered comments among themselves. Their bearing was calm with an air of assurance in which there was only a slight trace of flippancy.

The defendants for the first time developed signs of nervousness when the attorneys representing the prosecution, Messrs. F. M. Black, Gil C. Daugherty and Edward Kibler entered accompanied by Messrs. J. J. Carroll, J. W. Hansberger, W. H. Mazey of the Griggs store, and A. R. Lindorf, of Meyer Bros. & Co.

Attorneys and clients were grouped about a large table before the Mayor. On the opposite side sat Messrs. B. G. Smythe and Phil B. Smythe, representing the prisoners.

Mr. Thomas Jones took a stenographic report of the proceedings.

At this point the room was packed almost to suffocation, many women being present.

"I believe you are ready, gentlemen," said His Honor, the Mayor. Mr. Kibler stated that they wished to try the case against Mrs. White and Mrs. Harris first.

The defense waived the reading of the affidavit, charging grand larceny, and entered a plea of not guilty.

The witnesses, for the prosecution were then sworn, Misses Jennie Green, Mae Smith and A. R. Lindorf, being the only ones present. Mr. Carroll and Mr. Mazey were subsequently sworn.

Miss Mae Smith was the first witness examined by Mr. Black.

Some delay was caused before the examination proceeded, while Mr. Lindorf went to get some of the goods that figured in the trial.

The Court ordered a separation of the witnesses for the prosecution.

Miss Smith said: I was a clerk in Meyer Bros. & Co. last Monday and that afternoon saw the middle woman (looking behind her and indicating Mrs. White) standing at the silk counter "working" with the silk. I saw her put some silk under her cape and reported the matter to Mr. Thompson, the floor walker. There was no one behind the silk counter at this time. I paid no further attention to the matter after reporting it. Mrs. Frederick was standing near Mrs. White, and there was another woman there, that I did not know. They had crumpled the silk up.

Miss Smith identified a bolt of silk shown her by Mr. Black as the silk she saw taken from under Mrs. White's cape by Miss Green.

Miss Smith said further: She also had two bolts of ribbon, pink and black in her hands. Mrs. White said that "that lady put the silk under her cape," indicating the woman with her. The goods were not sold to Mrs. White.

Cross examined by B. G. Smythe she said: Mr. Black asked me to sign the prepared affidavit in his office. Mayor Atherton and two or three others were present. I had no conversation before signing the affidavit. Mr. Black asked me to come to his office. I don't know whether the affidavit was prepared before I got there or not. A lady was writing on a type writer while I was there. I got to the office before Mr. Black. I was at the music counter when the silk was taken. The silk department is my department. I can identify that piece of silk and I saw her take it.

The cross examination at this point was very severe and the witness had some difficulty in telling how she knew that piece of silk had ever been in Meyer Bros. store.

She said that she knew it was the same from guarantee marks and because she had handled it, but her identification was not conclusive.

Miss Smith identified the rolls of ribbon by Meyer Bros. cost marks. She said: The paper about the roll of silk had the cost mark on and was left on the silk counter. Miss Green measured the silk in the bolt in my presence and there were 41 yards. I know our own cost prices, and the marks indicating them, and those are Meyer Bros. cost marks on the bolts of ribbons.

Re-direct examination by Mr. F. M. Black: What is a fair price per yard of that silk? Objected to.

It developed in the argument of this objection on the part of the counsel for the defense that a question propounded to the witness by Mr. Black as to the price of the bolt of silk per yard that counsel for the defense would attempt to show that the value of the silk in Meyer Bros. store, 98 cents per yard, was not necessarily the correct market value, and that they would attempt to reduce the value of the silks alleged to have been stolen below $35, and thus if found guilty, to reduce the grade of crime from grand to petit larceny.

An effort was made on Thursday afternoon by an Advocate reporter who visited the City Prison, to get a statement from either one of the three women confined there on the charge of shoplifting.

Mrs. Laura Harris and Mrs. Ella Haughey did not seem to be at all down cast at their confinement, nor at the charge preferred against them with its attendant disgrace and probable punishment.

Mrs. Rosa White, on the other hand took the whole matter very much to heart, and indicated her willingness to make a clean breast of the matter to the newspaper men, but in this she was prevented by her two companions.

Mrs. White at the door of the cell was asked if she knew where Mrs. Frederick was.

"She's up town, I suppose, but here's where she ought to be. She is the one to blame for my being here. It was she who got me drunk Monday and was the cause of me doing as I did. Before that time I had never stolen the value of a pin. These two women in here, I never was out with, and know nothing about any transactions they may have had."

During this short conversation the Harris and Haughey women were in the rear of the cell constantly cautioning Mrs. White not to talk.

"You're a fool, Rose, to tell anything."

"Do you want to give us the worst of it?"

"You needn't think you are going to get off any easier by talking to a lying reporter. You're in for it too."

"Come back here, Rose, and shut your mouth."

These were the admonitions fired at Mrs. White and when it was seen that they did not have the desired effect Mrs. Harris came to the front of the cell and putting her arm around her waist, forcibly dragged Mrs. White away, and then with a look of superior advantage cast at the reporter, she proceeded to heap abuse on his devoted head.

The three women, Mrs. White, Mrs. Harris and Mrs. Haughey were released Thursday night on bond, for their appearance for trial Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

RAILWAY AFFAIRS.

POINTS OF BOTH GENERAL AND LOCAL INTEREST.

May Cut Out Cambridge Tunnel—B. & O. Announcement—Pittsburg Roads to Hire 1000 Men.

The official announcement has been made from the B. & O. headquarters of the abolition of the District Freight Agencies at Tiffin and Sandusky, O., and Pittsburg, the commercial agency, at Cleveland and the position of Coal and Coke Agent at Columbus, O. It seems to be the intention of President Loree to do a little weeding out in the B. & O. freight garden. When he gets through with the work in the freight department it is understood he will use the pruning knife in the passenger department. The operating department was the first to receive attention from him.

Will Extend His Jurisdiction. It is understood now that the jurisdiction of General Passenger Agent

W. C. Rinearson will be extended over the Alabama Great Southern. Originally the Queen & Crescent was known as the Cincinnati, New Orleans and Texas Pacific railroad, and the Alabama Great Southern was a part of the through line. Now the Alabama Great Southern becomes an integral part of the system, giving the Queen & Crescent a great continuous through line.

Murray May Resign.

It is said that Oscar G. Murray will soon resign his position as first vice president of the Baltimore & Ohio. Mr. Murray is at Hot Springs, Ark., and it is said his resignation will be sent from that place.

Announcement of the change is expected will be made February 1. It is alleged that President Loree will give the weeding out process his personal attention as he is acquainted with the personnel of almost all the employees. It is rumored here that Mr. Murray will return to one of the Western roads.

Concerning the B. & O.

Some of the delays attendant upon making certain divisional changes upon the lines of the Baltimore & Ohio west of Pittsburg are explained by the information recently obtained that here is a serious disagreement on the subject among the higher powers at Baltimore, says the Cleveland Leader.

From what can be learned there are three big factors in the situation. The friends of one of these at least must be sacrificed, and each factor is contending for the welfare of his following. C. S. Wright, the manager of freight traffic, represents the old line B. & O. officials and is one of the strongest men on the line; Oscar G. Murray, the traffic manager represents the newer interests on the road or that faction which brought the line out of the hands of the receiver and put it upon its feet. The other factor is made of influential personages upon the recently acquired lines. The real trouble, however, seems to be between Mr. Murray and Mr. Wright, with the other factor as a claimant which is not to be overlooked by either. The little affair started at first in Baltimore, where Mr. Wright disposed of one of the Murray men against the wishes of the traffic manager. Mr. Murray next allowed it to be understood that the division freight agency at Sandusky was to be abolished and he duties were to be taken over by the Chicago division. It happens that his post is held by a relative to Mr. Wright. From these two points the contest extended until it has effected very change that was to have been made west of Pittsburg and there are late and rival slates. It was at first supposed that the appointment of these officials would become effective before the first of February, but nothing has been done so far. Just when these appointments will be made is a question which no one wishes to try to answer just now.

STREAKS

Of Red in Steele's Hair Led to His Rearrest as a Fugitive From Pontiac, Mich.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 31.—The hair dresser whom H. Steele, alias Stephen Burns, alias Henry Stead, employed to dye his hair dark, did his work inartistically, and a few streaks of red here and there led to Steele's rearrest while posing as a guest at the Oneida Hotel. He escaped one month ago from the Illinois Reformatory at Pontiac. His hair is naturally red, and when the circulars went to the police centers asking for his apprehension particular stress was laid upon his auburn hair. The local detectives, making a tour of the hotels and lodging houses, struck a lead that directed attention to Steele's hair and Splann and Haley walked into Steele's room while he was taking an after-breakfast nap. Examination showed a bright red where the dye failed to assimilate, and they also found a "jiminy" with a revolver and cap. Steele was awakened and told to "come along," which he did without a murmur. He laughed merrily when his hair was criticised, but he did not deny his identity. He refused to say anything in the "sweatbox" which might incriminate him. The Pontiac authorities have been notified.

Norfolk, Va., Jan. 31.—Fire this morning in Brown's saloon on Granby street exploded whisky barrels and scattered the flames all over the street. In short order 150 business firms and living apartments were in flames. There were many thrilling rescues, but no fatalities. The loss is a half million.
The fire which started at 2 o'clock this morning destroyed the Columbia office building, the Atlantic hotel, the Virginia club, the building occupied by the Johnston China Company, the big department store of White, Retew & Clay, the academy of music and a number of smaller buildings.

The Hague, Jan. 31.—Rumors of renewed differences between Queen-Willhelmina and Prince Henry, her consort, are current here. It is today stated that the endeavors of Dowager Queen Emma to draw the royal couple together are not meeting with success. A divorce seems probable. Henry has left for a prolonged hunting trip.

INTO A FURY

People Are Being Worked by Speeches—Almost Open Revolt Over the Land Question.

Dublin, Jan. 31.—County Roscommon is in almost open revolt over the land question. Tenants who are suspected of having paid their rents, have been visited by armed men nightly and threatened with death if they do not desist. J. O'Donnell, a Nationalist member of parliament, addressed a gathering last night. He said "We challenge the British government to send regiments against us. We will meet them man for man and settle this land question for good." Speeches similar to this are working the people into a fury.

AMUSEMENTS.

William H. West and his Big Minstrel Jubilee that has now become firmly established as the leading minstrel organization of the world will be the attraction at the Auditorium to-morrow night. Every indication points to a large audience. The West minstrels have always presented a high class, refined entertainment, and this season's company as organized by Mr. West gives every indication in advance of maintaining the reputation so earnestly sought for by its proprietor. No form of amusement has undergone a more radical or happier evolution the past few years than minstrelsy. From the rude it has developed to a plane of excellence in which magnificence of spectacle, richness of musical effect, and above all clean, moral tone are essentials. The broadest of the early performers has given away to the polished epigrams, the original negro ditty to the artistic ballad, and the entire entertainment of today appeals to the refined, critical taste in the best element of theatre-goers. Mr. William H. West has done much to bring minstrelsy up to its high standard and promises us this season an entertainment replete with high salaried features, a host of clever comedians and some of the world's most famous minstrel vocalists. Among the prominent members of his company are such well known and popular comedians as Billy Van, McMahon & King, N. S. Carr and others who promise to keep the mirthful end of the program up to concert pitch. The singing contingent is composed of vocalists with an international reputation, including that prime favorite, Manuel Romain, America's greatest minstrel tenor, in addition to Clement Stuart, England's highest salaried and most famous minstrel and concert hall singer, Robert Dredge, a phenomenal male soprano; Georgie Jones, a boy baritone, who is creating a furore everywhere; Wilson N. Miller, a prominent basso, F. H. Hammond and a splendid chorus of perfectly classified voices. The olio introduces many entertaining features, prominent among which are Billy Van, McMahon & King, Carr, McDonald & Parshley, the wonderful Rio troupe of athletes, and the Zeb & Zarrow Trio, comedy and trick cyclists.

"The Little Minister" made the greatest success of any play ever produced in this country—the success being of the sort that manager, playwright and all concerned could most desire. It is to be presented in Newark on the evening of February 4, next Tuesday night. The Little Minister is a comedy by J. M. Barrie and is founded on Mr. Barrie's novel of the same name. Its record consists of a run of 300 nights in New York City at that time the greatest business ever done by an American play. The theatre was crowded to the doors at every performance. Not once did the curtain go up on a performance that every inch of standing room in the house was not filled. The comedy has had a like phenomenal acceptance wherever seen. Mr. Barrie has made an exceptionally sweet and fragrant play out of his novel. The Little Minister of the stage has all the charm and quaint interest of the book. It is a compact, simple love story in which the roguish, laughing eyed Lady Babbie of Thrums seem to have been actually called to life to aid in her pranks and make it all appear real and earnest. The atmosphere of Mr. Barrie's novel has been completely transferred to the stage in the comedy, and the production which Mr. Frohman gives it is said to be in every way worthy of both his own reputation and that of Mr. Barrie.

King Alphonso's coronation is to be commemorated by the issue of 13 new kinds of postage stamps, each of which is to bear the head of one of the 13 kings of the same name who have ruled over Spain.

The first year of the new century was an all-round break for the farmers of the United States. The entire year's surplus of the products of field and farm sold abroad amounted to no less than $500,000,000.

TILLMAN

CONCLUDES SPEECH AGAINST TARIFF BILL

LIVELY SESSION OF THE UNITED STATES SENATE.

SOME FEATURES OF MEASURE

Creating a Permanent Census Bureau
Just Passed by the House—Doings of Congress.

Washington, Jan. 31.—The session of the senate was entirely void of the tumultuous scenes which characterized the sessions of the past three days. After the Philippine tariff measure was taken up Mr. Tillman delivered a speech devoted almost entirely to a discussion of the part his state took in the war for the independence of the United States. Incidentally he referred occasionally to the pending bill, drawing morals, as he said, for the benefit of the majority, that they might be appropriated to the Philippines. Prior to taking up the Philippine bill the senate passed a number of unobjectionable bills.

Concluding his speech, Mr. Tillman said the pending Philippine tariff bill was a proposition to erect a tariff wall between the United States and another part of the domestic territory was a departure from every principle that had brought this country to the pinnacle of greatness and made it the cynosure of the eyes of the world as the land of the free and the home of the brave. The effort to treat the Philippines "as chattels, as cattle," he declared, was "damnable," and he charged the majority side with being the "real murderers of our troops in the Philippines." "But," he asserted, shaking his finger at the Republican side, "if we can gag you and force down your throats a scintilla or small dose of the principles which actuated the men of Massachusetts in 1776, we will have done our duty to the country and to humanity."

Permanent Census Bureau.
Washington, Jan. 31.—The house passed the bill for the creation of a permanent census bureau. The friends of the civil service law, who were opposed to making the employees of the bureau eligible for transfer or retention, were overwhelmingly defeated. By the terms of the bill the permanent organization will succeed the present temporary organization July 1, 1922, and all employees on the rolls upon the date of the passage of the act will become eligible for transfer to other departments or retention in the permanent organization. The bill also provides for a manufacturing census in 1925 and for the collection of certain special statistics annually. Early in the session a bill was passed for the protection of the lives of miners in the territories.

Singular Accident.
Duluth, Jan. 31.—George Reeder, a Northern Pacific freight conductor, is dead as the result of a peculiar accident. Reeder was running an extra to Duluth from the west and discovered that a brake shoe was frozen to one of the wheels. Procuring a lining bar he leaned over on the step and struck at the shoe with the rod. While in this position one end of the rod struck the ground and the other end pointed straight at Reeder. The rush of the train forced the rod heavily against his stomach, producing internal injuries from which he died.

Stone Negotiations.
Raisos, Rumelia, European Turkey, Jan. 31.—A representative of the Associated Press has had an interview with the delegates who have been negotiating for the release of Miss Stone and Madame Tsiska. They said that their negotiations with the brigands had been unsatisfactory and that they had intended returning to Constantinople. Before starting, however, they said they received fresh information which induced them to renew their communications with the brigands and that these negotiations are now proceeding.

Secretary Shaw Arrives.
Washington, Jan. 31.—Ex-Governor Leslie Leslie M. Shaw of Iowa, the next secretary of the treasury, arrived here with Mrs. Shaw and went at once to the Arlington hotel. Mr. Shaw said that he expected to be sworn in as secretary of the treasury next Saturday morning, in accordance with the understanding reached with Secretary Gage before he returned to Iowa to close his affairs there.

Germany and Philippines.
Berlin, Jan. 31.—The story originating in Vienna that Germany would buy the Philippine Islands from the United States and the visit of Prince Henry would precede the announcement of this sale, is pronounced by German officials to be absurd.

How Over "Taps."
Cairo, Jan. 31.—Disputes between hotel porters and dragomans over a division of backsheesh culminated in a shooting affray in front of a leading hotel, in which the head porter killed two dragomans and wounded a third. There was considerable excitement in the native quarters, but no rioting.

PATRICK TRIAL

Rice Will of 1896 Ruled Out For the Tenth Time in Celebrated Murder Trial.

New York, Jan. 31.—Recorder Coffin, in the trial of Albert T. Patrick for the murder of William Marsh Rice, for the tenth time ruled out the admission of the Rice will of 1896 which the prosecution has been trying to get into the record. Following the evidence of Banker Norman S. Meldrum, who was again on the stand, that the signature to the assignment of Mr. Rice's estate to Patrick was a forgery and that the signature to 1896 will was genuine, came the testimony of Joseph L. Blinn of Springfield, Mass., a nephew of the dead man. Mr. Blinn told of being summoned to New York by Patrick, and said the latter told him he (Blinn) was to get $30,000 of the estate under the 1900 or Patrick will.

Violent Gales.
St. Johns, Jan. 31.—Violent gales have been raging here for the past three days. There have been blizzards in some sections of the island. This is the first really severe period of storm this season, the winter, up to the present time, having proved unusually mild. The present storms have leveled the telegraph lines and blocked the roads in certain portions of the colony and have delayed steamers and generally interfered with traffic. It is feared this is but the beginning of a series of winter storms.

Schley at Louisville.
Louisville, Jan. 31.—Admiral Schley, as the guest of the Louisville Knights Templars, had little opportunity to rest. From 10 o'clock in the morning, when he visited the girls' high school, until he left Templar hall, every moment of his time was occupied. The greater portion of the day was spent among children, and the admiral shook hands with about 1,000 boys and girls, who expressed their pleasure by cheering their visitor and presenting him with flowers.

German visitors landed.
Washington, Jan. 31.—The German ambassador gave a ball in honor of the officers and cadets of the German school ship Moltke, now lying in Baltimore harbor. The embassy was decorated with the national colors and the naval flags of the Fatherland draped the halls and ballroom. Madam Von Reuber-Paschwitz, wife of the naval and military attaché of the embassy, received with Ambassador Von Holleben.

RIVERS UP

Kentucky People Fear a Big Flood.
Frankfort Frightened—Lexington is Laid Out.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 31.—Frankfort is threatened with the worst flood in her history. The Kentucky river continues to rise at a rate of ten inches an hour. Lower parts of the city are already submerged, forcing occupants of houses in that part of the city to upper stories, and the biggest part of the flood, the 30-foot rise from Beattyville, has not reached here. Rain began falling and if it should continue and take the heavy coat of snow and sleet off at once, the result will be far more serious than the big rise of 1884.

Result of the Sleet.
Paducah, Ky., Jan. 31.—Paducah is practically paralyzed as a result of the sleet storm. The city is without light or motive power, and it will be several days before the confusion is dispelled. The total damage will probably amount to $200,000. The damage to stocks of merchandise from the water forced through the roofs by the sleet and ice will amount alone to over $100,000. The Cumberland Telephone company is probably the heaviest sufferer.

Lexington Laid Out.
Lexington, Ky., Jan. 31.—All elevators and plants dependent on electricity for power are paralyzed. Over one hundred poles of the Cumberland Telephone company are down, and its service is practically suspended. The telegraph companies have suffered severely. Streets are almost impassable from fallen trees and limbs. The aggregate property loss is over $50,000 to the present time.

Coal Combine Falls Through.
Indianapolis, Jan. 31.—The giant coal combine of the Indiana and Illinois mines has failed. Positive information to this effect was contained in a private telegram received in Indianapolis from John H. Bays of Sullivan, who has been in charge of the promotion of the enterprise. The failure is attributed to the high prices demanded by the Illinois operators and the combination of the two states seems to have been made an impossibility, but it is not improbable that the mines of Indiana may enter a combination alone.

A Name Twice Made Famous, Now a Shining Mark for Imitators.

The name "Chase," twice made famous, is a shining mark for the unscrupulous to pounce upon and appropriate in order to foist upon the public their worthless preparations. These birds of prey, by using the name Chase, expect the public to be fooled into believing they are the medicines of Dr. A. W. Chase, who first became noted as the author of the world famous Dr. Chase's Receipt Book and family physician, and whose fame is now doubly increased by the wonderful success of his Nerve Pills, with Nerve, Brain and Blood troubles. They play upon the name Chase, but dare not use the initials "A. W."

They imitate, but dare not counterfeit the portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, which identifies the Nerve Pills now recognized as infallible for building up pale, weak, thin-blooded, nerve exhausted sufferers.

Who are nerve-tired and brain-weary,
Who are easily exhausted,
Who are wakeful—cannot sleep,
Who have nervous headache,
They remove the cause of blood impurities, securing refreshing sleep and impart strength.

They build up people who find their strength and vigor waning.
They settle irritated nerves, replace languor and lassitude with energy and animation. Cure Nervous Dyspepsia.

CAUTION.—This protection to the public in securing the genuine and original Dr. A. W. Chase preparation is in seeing the portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., on each box. These and these only are the genuine. Do not be satisfied with anything bearing the name "Chase" without the initials A. W. 50 cts. of Druggists or Dr. A. W. Chase, Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Two Fire Alarms.

An alarm of fire from box 47 at 5:15 o'clock Thursday evening called the Central Department to the residence of Walter Leedale on North Fourth street. A small blaze in the pantry adjoining the kitchen caused a loss of $10, protected by insurance.

Origin of the fire is unknown.

The Department received an alarm from box 52 at 12:20 o'clock last night calling the firemen to the Swartz shoe shop on Union street, in the building owned by James James. A $900 stock of footwear, which was only placed in the room on Wednesday was almost a total loss. Insured.

Coasting Accident.

Zanesville, O., Jan. 31.—The twelve-year-old daughter of Tillis Wells met with a serious coasting accident Thursday evening. The young girl and some companions were coasting on Hall avenue. In making the descent of the hill she collided with an old bob sled standing by the roadside. The girl suffered the cutting of an extended gash in her right leg between the knee and the ankle. The wound necessitated the taking of thirty-five stitches and was very painful.

The total vote of Arizona at the last general election was 16,220, of New Mexico 39,412 and of Oklahoma 73,367.

HEROISM

Of Two Women Nurses in New York
Highly Praised—Girl With Small Pox is Saved.

New York, Jan. 31.—The heroism of two women nurses is highly praised on Staten Island today. Last Monday they came to nurse Margaret Ferris, a 12-year-old girl, who had been taken ill with smallpox immediately after an operation for appendicitis. The hospital authorities placed the sick girl in a tent on the top of a wind-swept hill, and the wind swept through the canvass and extinguished the fire. Seeing that the sufferer would die unless she was kept warm, the nurses both got into the bed to keep the child warm. Next day the girl was removed to North Brothers' island. One of the nurses name is Miss I. Dolan and the name of the other is not known. The girl is doing well today.

Mr. Jordan Is It.

W. V. Jordan, general agent of the Fidelity Mutual Life Insurance Company, has been in Cleveland attending the Ohio Agency Convention and banquet, tendered the Ohio agents of that company, who would succeed in placing a given amount of business in one week. Mr. Jordan was one of the 10 who qualified.

The banquet was given Tuesday evening at the Hollenden, by W. V. Holley, state superintendent, and was in honor of Mr. A. McKnight, vice president of the Fidelity company, who addressed the agents. Mr. Holley presented Mr. Jordan with over $100,000 of insurance written by those present within a week.

He considers the remedy remarkable. The recoveries were very rapid. Physicians now believe that it may be used with good effect on typhoid fever patients.
